KICK OFF . FINALE CUISINE for ART

We invite you to be part of the 28th Annual Cuisine for Art, the Hollywood Art and Culture Center's signature fundraising event celebrating the powerful connection between art, community, and leadership.

This year we honor Arturo & Liza Mosquera, the Honorable Suzanne Gunzburger and Memorial Healthcare System for their leadership, generosity, and contributions to strengthen the arts and cultural life in our South Florida community.

Cuisine for Art advances the Center's mission to cultivate creativity and support the arts through education, innovation, and collaboration. The event brings together artists, elected officials, community leaders, and cultural advocates through a thoughtfully curated experience that includes a Kick Off celebration of our Honorees, and the elevated Cuisine for Art Finale featuring the Center's Celebrity Waiters—elected officials and community leaders who have pledged their support of the arts.

Proceeds from Cuisine for Art directly support the Center's youth and senior arts education programs, contemporary art exhibitions, live stage performances, award-winning documentary film programming, and the Jennifer Gardella Memorial Scholarship Fund to ensure access for all.

We hope you will consider joining us in our commitment to the arts and community through a sponsorship, ticket purchase, program advertising, auction donation or a general donation. Your support plays a vital role in sustaining the Center's work and making the arts thrive in our community.

Event Chairs Erick Eldridge, Jill Ginsberg, Anna Smith

Honoree Celebration Kick Off

Thursday | March 19 | Seminole Hard Rock Hotel & Casino

The Honoree Celebration Kick Off welcomes sponsors, supporters, artists, and community leaders for an evening of culinary bites, entertainment, and connection. The Kick Off recognizes our Cuisine for Art Honorees, individuals whose leadership and advocacy have made a lasting impact on the arts and cultural life of our community.

Cuisine for Art Finale

Friday | April 24 | Hollywood Art and Culture Center

The Cuisine for Art Finale is an elegant and celebratory evening at the Center featuring a seated dinner, live entertainment, and a dynamic auction showcasing art, experiences, and exclusive offerings. Throughout the evening, Sponsors, Honorees, and Guests enjoy a curated immersive experience, and their collective impact supports the Center's mission and programs.

A signature highlight of the evening is the participation of the Center's Celebrity Waiters—elected officials, community leaders, and members of the Board of Trustees who step forward to serve guests. Their involvement brings warmth, energy, and a distinctly civic spirit to the event, reinforcing the Center's role as a cultural and community anchor.

Honorees

Arturo F. & Liza C. Mosquera

Dr. Arturo and Liza Mosquera are visionary cultural leaders whose decades-long partnership has shaped one of South Florida's most influential private art collections. As founders and directors of Art@Work and Farside Gallery, they have produced more than 160 exhibitions and championed artists across the Americas and beyond, earning international recognition for their curatorial vision and commitment to alternative art spaces. The Mosquera Collection has been featured in major museums and publications, and they have generously donated works to institutions including the Pérez Art Museum Miami, Bass Museum, NSU Art Museum Fort Lauderdale, the Frost Art Museum, and the Smithsonian American Art Museum. Longtime advocates for arts education and community engagement, the Mosqueras have also supported organizations such as Locust Projects and the Hollywood Art and Culture Center. Together, their shared passion for artists and cultural stewardship continues to elevate Miami's creative landscape.

Hon. Suzanne Gunzburger

Suzanne "Sue" Gunzburger is a longtime public servant and community advocate whose leadership has helped shape Broward County for more than three decades. A former educator and clinical social worker, she served ten years on the Hollywood City Commission before being elected to the Broward County Commission, where she was repeatedly re-elected and became widely known for championing environmental preservation, social services, public funding for the arts, LGBTQ equality, and strong ethics reform. Deeply rooted in Hollywood since 1968, Sue's career reflects a lifelong commitment to empowering communities, strengthening cultural institutions, and advancing policies that improve quality of life for all residents.

Honorees

Memorial Healthcare System is honored for more than 20 years of unwavering support of the Hollywood Art and Culture Center. A nationally recognized leader in healthcare and a cornerstone of South Florida's community, Memorial has long championed the arts through board service, advocacy, and sustained investment—recognizing the vital role creativity and culture play in healing, education, and overall well-being.

Through its commitment to community enrichment, Memorial has helped strengthen the Center's exhibitions, education programs, and public access initiatives, ensuring the arts remain a vibrant and accessible resource for generations. Memorial Healthcare System's enduring partnership reflects a shared belief that healthy communities are built not only through exceptional care, but through creativity, connection, and cultural engagement.
